customer service is everything, a local business in search of a new pizza shop got a unique opportunity when a customer asked for the name of the owner so she could give her some feedback. As Kristina Nguyen was telling her story to the pizza shop owner, she also shared what led her to the restaurant in the first place. She said she was looking for a new place to eat because her old neighborhood had changed so much that she wasn't able to eat there anymore. Nguyen said she was inspired to start her own restaurant because of the community and acceptance that she experienced when opening her own bakery in January. "I decided to be a full-time business owner and I'm a mom to my two young boys. I needed a place where I can eat and where I can go and get things done," said Nguyen. "I think it's great that the owner came out and met me. It's not common in the community, so it's a very special thing. I've been so happy with this experience." N
