A first-rate educational resource... The study of ancient history within the context of western civilization is very difficult. As a result, there are limited resources available in the form of books written by historians who are well-versed in the subject matter. Professor J. Dharmarajan, a scholar of Indian history, has collated a number of such volumes and created an indexed work that may be used by students of history as well as those who wish to improve their skills in one subject. This book is organized into chapters to include the ancient history of South Asia, subcontinent of India, including Ancient Kingdom of Cholas, dating back to 8th Century B.C. A number of historical facts have been reviewed. These facts are presented in a very logical and easy to understand manner. A short outline of the chapter also is provided. Thus, the user will be able to get a quick overview of the topic before delving into the facts of the same. B. R. Ambedkar. The last but not the least. Prof. J. Dharmarajan... Published:.
