I'm just a simple guy that enjoys taking care of himself. If I'm feeling strong, I usually try to eat healthier, and if I'm not feeling so hot, I usually go back to eating a more "normal" diet. I've been feeling really bloated lately, which is totally understandable since I'm in the middle of the "uber bloot" cycle. I've been doing all the tips in the Fitday Diet Plan that I've been following. The problem is that they're not enough. I have to keep pushing myself further, but it's becoming a difficult challenge. I've been trying to make it through each day without bingeing on carbs, but one day when I finally felt myself coming close to one of those dead-in-the-water moments where I felt like I would explode if I didn't get something to eat, something was said to me that shocked me. "You know, I don't eat pizza every day of the week, but I don't ever think about it," my wife said to
