Is it a bug of the game that it has not a key and no tutorial? I am the same as you. You can sometimes solve the tutorial with the hints of the game and scrolling the screen in an odd way, find the right objects and then the tutorial starts. I do not know this method. Is there any public guide or tutorial of the game? A video should be fine? The game needs voice over, it is very difficult to understand, specially for a new player that has not played or heard the game before. It does not always happen, but sometimes you have to buy a few coins to play a stage, then the tutorial is not available (that is all). I can not find a tutorial with video of the game, and can not find something similar. The game was not in english (except for the menus), and no video tutorial was possible due to lack of voice overs. Do you have any tutorial video for the game? Maybe in spanish? Thanks. _____ Click on the link below to check the market: It's also a problem of the game, as the first thing you do is activate the "suicide mission", that creates a public mission and if he succeeds, it is very easy to lose your game. I tried several times to get it to work with the hints in the hints, but I think I did not get it right because I could not load the money back to the game. Maybe we can talk through some questions and try to get it right. Try this guide to get the game in Spanish. It is exactly in 6 parts, but it is very clear. Search the guide as for "estilo de juego" to find the specific part. I will leave it here as a reference. My Point: The game does not have a voice over, I do not know how to solve the tutorial and was not very clear in English. Search the guide to get the tutorial, at the step 4, we have the button "Start guide with voice over in spanish." Go to a mission, and use this guide to find the solution, then you will get the tutorial and you will get the voice over. I hope it is clear. If anyone has
