She has served as the Chairwoman of the Congressional Progressive Caucus and the co-chair of the Congressional LGBT Equality Caucus. Lee served as the de facto first female speaker of the California State Assembly from 2005 to 2012, when the speaker position rotated annually between the two houses of the California State Legislature. She became the first woman to hold the position of Speaker of the California State Assembly in January 2009. She was named the chairwoman of the California Democratic Party in 2016, but she resigned after just a few months. Early life and education Lee is the daughter of Roman and Phyllis Kraljevich. Roman Kraljevich was director of business analysis for the City and County of San Francisco in the early 1990s. She earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in English literature and journalism from UCLA, where she was active in student government, and a Master's degree in education administration from the University of California, Berkeley. Sun Tzu, The Art of War. Thursday, July 09, 2008 Fort Hood Victim Assaults Have Long History, Experts Say By Sgt. Michael DavisUS Army Fort Hood, Texas – The two people charged with assaulting mental health patients at the Texas Army post are responsible for previous assaults, a senior law enforcement official said today. "They're no strangers to the system," said Maj. Gen. John C. "Jack" Galvin, the deputy commanding general for the post, who briefed reporters about the case. "They've been in the system, and it hasn't worked before. The system has failed them." Hospital workers have been assaulted by Army personnel many times before, Galvin said, and the assaults often occur after the patients have been shown kindness and have been in a position to trust the staff. Galvin said it's not uncommon for soldiers
