STELLA BRASFIELD, Respondent, v. ALVIN E. CLARK et al., Defendants; NINA L. CLARK et al., Appellants. Civ. No. 5298. California Court of Appeals. Fourth Dist. Apr. 18, 1956. Donald W. Marshall for Appellants. Munson, Kiefer & Anderson for Respondent. BARNARD, P. J. This is an appeal from a judgment in a suit for personal injuries. The accident happened on the highway on the evening of January 20, 1954, about nine miles west of Riverside. The collision occurred between the car in which the plaintiff was riding and one that was owned by the defendants. The defendants' car was following the plaintiff's car for some distance before it overtook it. Both parties were married at the time and lived in Santa Barbara; they separated and the plaintiff's car for some distance before it overtook it. Both parties were married at the time and lived in Santa Barbara; they separated and the plaintiff's car was repaired and she left the State of California for about one month. When she returned, she had an accident while driving a car she owned and was returning to Santa Barbara. She testified that she had not driven for about four years prior to the accident. While the plaintiff was riding in a car driven by her sister-in-law, the defendant son, then 16 years old, drove it in a negligent manner and negligently failed to keep his car under control. The parents were driving the car with the permission of the son, who
